

BSA Pack 29

Dear Parents,

Hello and welcome to Pack 29. You are joining an amazing organization. We know that those new to Scouting have many questions, and over the next few weeks we will do our very best to get them all answered for you. You can start by looking through your Parent Handbook. You will find many answers within this simple guide.

Cub Scouts offers an amazing experience for both Scouts and their families. Whether it is at one of our campouts, special events, or even a Den Meeting, parents are not only encouraged but expected to get deeply involved in the Scouting experiencing alongside their Scout. This might be anything from assisting your child with a project in his Den Meeting, serving as a Den Leader, or taking a role within our Pack Committee. I once heard a parent say, "The more involved I am in Scouting; the more involved my son wants to be as well." This will go a long way to keeping your son involved in Scouts for many years to come.

The Pack Committee plays a major role in the delivery of a quality Scouting program. Among the Committee responsibilities are:

- Ensuring that quality adult leadership is recruited and trained – we encourage any parent that wants to be involved in the Pack leadership to do so. We will find the position best suited for you.
- Coordinate the pack's program and the chartered organization's program through the chartered organization representative. Our charter organization is Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church.
- Help with pack charter renewal.
- Help stimulate the interest of adult family members through proper programming.
- Supervise finances and Pack equipment.
- Vigorously assist the Cubmaster.
- Ensure that all Cub Scouts receive a year-round, quality program.
- Conduct, with the help of the Cubmaster, periodic training for parents and guardians.
- Cooperate with other Scouting units.

Every one of our leaders and committee members is a parent who gives of their time and energy to serve our Scouting family. As the mother of two sons in the Pack, I am so grateful for these men and women who have made this program the phenomenal experience that is Pack 29. I hope that you will find a role that will suit you, and join us in this most worthy and enjoyable program. Please contact me if I can be of any assistance to you. I look forward to getting to know each of you as well as your Scouts.

Yours in Service,

Meredith Slaten
